

BABIES IN SWEDEN DYING BECAUSE OF RUBBER EMBARGO

Lack of Material for Nipples Is Causing Many Deaths, Says Returned Traveller.

DANCE ABOARD CRUISER

Stockholm's Passengers, Detained at Kirkwall, Are Entertained by British Officers.

Passengers on the steamship Stockholm, in to-day from Gothenburg, Sweden, were enthusiastic over their temporary delay at Kirkwall, Scotland. The vessel had been brought into that port by a British cruiser and was relieved of her mails. That the passengers might be placated, the commander of the cruiser invited them aboard for a dance and it was almost dawn before the ship's band ceased playing.

That poker is not altogether an American institution was demonstrated in the smoking room during the voyage, when pretty Miss Mabel Lithander of Sweden cleaned up on all hands. Miss Lithander and her mother, who is the wife of a wealthy Swede, are making their first visit to America. The girl is a great devotee of outdoor sports and wants to see a ball game. They will spend the summer at Newport and Bar Harbor.

Hans Lagerlof, secretary of the Swedish-American Chamber of Commerce, who returns after a three months visit to Sweden, says that because of the English embargo on rubber babies and mothers are being sacrificed.

"It is almost impossible to get rubber nipples for the babies," said Mr. Lagerlof, "and as a result, the infants are afflicted with raw gums, often resulting fatally. The surgeons are unable to get rubber gloves and many mothers are dying at child birth. Sweden is greatly aroused over the situation and this, taken in conjunction with the seizing of mails, is not making the nation any too friendly disposed toward England."

Commander August von Eckerstrom, chief naval constructor of the Swedish navy, is on his way to Pittsburgh to supervise the making of armor plate for two big Swedish battleships.

B. H. Holgren, a Chilean importer, announced that a direct line of steamships had been established between Gothenburg and Chilean ports. This service, he said, permits Chile to purchase from Sweden many things which, prior to the war, were obtained in Germany and England.

Bjorn Edstrom, thirteen years old, son of J. Sigfried Edstrom, who, with his wife and three other children, has come on a visit to America, fell down a companionway three days ago and broke his right arm. Upon the arrival of the steamship the lad was taken to Roosevelt Hospital for treatment.

ment. William Adams, a business man of South Bend, Ind., who has been in Russia eight months, says the German trenches in the vicinity of Kiev have been converted into fortifications. He said the Germans have constructed six-foot breastworks of concrete. For a mile or more in front of the works wires charged with electricity have been laid along the ground.

GUNMAN, 19, SENTENCED TO DEATH ON BIRTHDAY

Wife Goes to Trial Accused of Plotting Husband's Murder as Slayer Is Condemned.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., June 8.

Pale, but stoical, William McNamara, a young gunman of Manhattan, was to-day condemned, on his nineteenth birthday, to die in the electric chair at Sing Sing Prison during the week beginning July 17. Justice Joseph Morchauer pronounced sentence in the Supreme Court at White Plains. When asked if he had anything to say why sentence should not be pronounced, he replied, in a low voice:

"All I can say is that I am innocent." McNamara was convicted of taking part in the murder of Gregorio George at Dobbs Ferry Jan. 15 last. On the witness stand he denied he was at the scene of the murder, but Mary Figlio, sister-in-law of Mrs. Antonetta George, who is on trial to-day for the same murder, swore Mrs. George offered her $500 to get two murderers to put her husband out of the way, because she was in love with Vito Ratmanda, a boarder. Mary Figlio's husband, Mike Figlio, a brother of Mrs. George, testified to-day that Mrs. George and Ratmanda, at his home in Hoboken, offered him $25 and $50 at various times to get a man to play a certain person at Dobbs Ferry.

PERPETUAL.

(From the Christian Enquirer.) Marriage is one institution that will always flourish despite the knocks of the Wise Guy. When you have a warm, soft bundle of girlhood in your arms and the wonderful perfume of her hair makes your whole system tingle, and she holds you so tight that you can feel her heart beating against yours, and you realize that she regards YOU as the Guy who puts out the Sun and lights the Moon—what are you going to do—kick her in the data or ask her to let you be her doormat for life?

Saks Suits for Youths, $13.50 to $20

Sizes 32 to 36

The Metropolitan Junior is generally considered to be the most hard-to-fit individual in New York. Not so at Saks, however, for our suits for youths are the product of tailors who are specialists in garments for young men.

Pleated backs and Norfolks are the most popular models for youths today, and the Saks selection of fabrics and colors in these designs are as far distant from the mediocre as is the tailoring of Saks garments.
